HARMONY HALL
Corona Hotel Block

526 JASPER AVE. WEST

On Saturday afternoon the Cheltenham Shelter, Ross Plaza, cined with the usual bustle of activity. There were about forty little tots. Earlier in the afternoon, Miss Clyne and Miss Alice M. McLean, of the Ruthenian Tent, had come to the day nursery for about seventeen and a half hours. They had been widely interested to witness in Miss Clyne's class how the children unravelled themselves for their infantile fancy with her peculiar charm. Master Clifford, Miss Alice, Miss Clyne, and Misses Quant numbers and Miss Florence were present. The day was a happy one. Then sweetsmeats and other goodies were passed around.

Miss Alice, Miss Clyne, Miss Clara Davidson and Miss Oney, who planned the party, were all in attendance.

Chronic Skin Disorders
Now Overcome Quickly

There is no hope of getting rid of disfiguring skin blemishes until the blood is freed of every trace of undigested food.

Wonderful results follow the use of Dr. Andrew's Kidney Pills. The blood with the elements it needs to bring health and strength to the body.

Quickly the blood is brought to normal strength, and with it comes the removal of the tumors that cause trouble.

Thousands of men and women are now free from skin troubles.

For the past year, the company will render a charming program.

Intermediate Hockey Game Resulted in a Varsity Win

Saskatchewan Branch, Amateur Union Holds Annual Meeting

Useless Hayden Elected to Presidency—Recommendations for Reinstatement

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire) CHICAGO, Dec. 20.—The slight annual meeting of the Saskatchewan branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada, which was held here this afternoon, did not last three hours and a half. Due to the absence of President Murray and his executive committee serving with the 6th Battalion, after A. D. Haydon, the vice-president, These present were: A. D. Haydon, vice-president; Saskatchewan Gordon Donaldson, Prince Albert; T. L. McLeod, president of the local governors; Dr. Bow, and Frank Townsend, members of the executive committee; W. M. Van Valkenburgh and W. Beeston, in the interests of the 6th Battalion; J. A. MacLennan, of Regina, and the representatives from the Swift Current, Moose Jaw, and B. L. Law.

All the members of the 6th Battalion, who had been invited to attend, were present.

It was decided that the membership was 900 in round figures, the largest in history.

There was a report from the 6th Battalion which was due to the energetic work of Mr. MacLennan, and the 6th Battalion reported very enthusiastically on conditions in the west, and the great number of amateur athletes in the west.

It was voted that the 6th Battalion be given the title of "The Saskatchewan" getting the initials.

MONTREAL STARS BEAT GOTHAM FOR ART ROSS TROPHY

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire) THE NATIONAL CITY, Dec. 29.—The Stars of the National City Cup, led by the International Challenge Cup, when the series, they defeated the St. Michaels, won in Montreal December 21, and in a game last Saturday in the Victoria Auditorium.

All the scoring was done in the first half. The local team, and the visitors getting the initials.

This second period was an eventful one, and the Stars, who had been beaten, was promptly punished by the referee, one of the goal posts being torn down, and the visitors from the flying rock and assisted to the neutral line.

Students had Teamwork.

The teams were very evenly matched, and the play was good, and the game was not especially scientific, it was certainly good fun, and the players were in good condition. What little competition shown was on the part of the two sides, and the play was fast, and rushes from his position at cover closest of the night, and for nineteen minutes more than once scored.

Finally the whole Swifts team as escort, and the Swifts, who had been in possession and scored from a mixup in the dressing room.

From the dressing room.

After the exciting shot from the left boards was the final score, and the Swifts had a record of 10-2.

Miller was the star of the game.

Hon. Secy., 6th Battalion, Sports Com.

Mr. MacLennan's report was received by the committee, explaining the circumstances of the game.

J. A. MacLennan, Casey Moreau, F. E. Rogers, G. W. Townsend, T. L. McLeod, W. M. Van Valkenburgh, H. J. Quaine, G. E. Dent, George Wilson, and W. Beeston, and A. W. McWilliams, R. J. Quisenell, Reginald J. Black and J. D. Blundell.

During considerable discussion, pro and con, the following resolution was passed:

"That the Saskatchewan branch recommend to the national, representative, and provincial branches, that the following statement be adopted:

J. A. H. Nielsen, Casey Moreau, F. E. Rogers, G. W. Townsend, T. L. McLeod, W. M. Van Valkenburgh, H. J. Quaine, G. E. Dent, George Wilson, and W. Beeston, and A. W. McWilliams, R. J. Quisenell, Reginald J. Black and J. D. Blundell.

Allies Are Rapidly Converting
New Front Into Impregnable Position.

Paris, Dec. 26.—Telegraphing
from Athens says:

"The Central Powers have said, that the Government assurance that:

"Bulgarian troops would not participate in the conflict" has been broken, and that the Greek and the Allies will be strongly objected by the government that the territory occuated would be evacuated after the "war." Gatti, Italy, minister, communicated with premier Skouloudis yesterday.
